

Weaver Fintech PCC Privacy Policy

Introduction

Weaver Fintech is committed to business practices in compliance with all applicable privacy legislation. Weaver Fintech operates in different jurisdictions and the "applicable legislation" to which we refer in this policy shall be the Mauritian Data Protection Act 20 of 2017 ("MU DPA"). "Personal information" (or referred to simply as "information") includes any personal information as specified in the applicable legislation.

In this policy "Weaver Fintech" refers to Weaver Fintech PCC, a company incorporated in the Republic of Mauritius. This policy applies whenever we process personal information of a person who is a shareholder of Weaver Fintech, a party that is interested in Weaver Fintech and provides its personal information to Weaver Fintech, visits or makes use of our websites, or communicates with us through any channel ("you" or "stakeholder"). It also applies if you are a third-party and we process your information as a result of your relationship with our stakeholder (for example if you are a representative / proxy / agent of a shareholder).

The privacy practices, including intra-group information sharing, of each of the subsidiary and all operating companies under Weaver Fintech are explained in the relevant privacy policy of such entity, and as such they are responsible to comply with their policies and the data protection laws that apply to them.

We may amend this policy from time to time, in line with changes required by legislation or our business. You must therefore review the policy whenever you visit any of our channels for any such changes. The amended version shall supersede and replace all previous versions. If you have any questions about it or do not agree with it, please contact us directly at contact@weaverfintech.com. By engaging with us as a stakeholder or on behalf of a stakeholder you agree to the terms of this policy.

Different privacy policies may apply to employee and supplier information.

Securing Personal Information

Weaver Fintech intends to protect your personal information and shall take reasonable internal technical and organisational security measures to prevent loss of or damage to personal information, unauthorised access, disclosure, modification, or unauthorised destruction of the data. However, information transmitted to us online (via the internet) is done so at your own risk. When entering your personal information via the internet, it is your responsibility to ensure that you use a secure computer or other electronic device. The internet is an open and often vulnerable system and the transfer of information via the internet is not completely secure, and it is your responsibility to ensure that you always use a secure and trusted internet connection. Once we have received your personal information, we will store all information in secured environments, for example on secured servers in a protected data centre.

We also have physical and electronic access controls to our buildings.

We only authorise access to information to those employees who require it to fulfil their designated responsibilities.

Links on our channels or platforms

The Weaver Fintech channels, platforms and our correspondence with you may include links to other apps or third-party websites which do not fall under our supervision. We cannot accept any responsibility for your privacy or the content of these third-party sites, but we display these links in order to make it easier for you to find information about specific subjects, products or services. Your use of and reliance on these links is at your own risk.

Your legal rights

You have certain rights in relation to your personal information. As available and except as limited by the MU DPA, you have the following rights in respect of your personal information:

- right of access: the right to be informed of and request access to the personal information that we process about you;
